

TEACHING IN: QATAR

Schools:
850+

Foreign teachers:
< 1,000

Why teach in Qatar?

Qatar is full of historical and modern attractions - there's something for everyone here! Plus, Doha, the capital, is one of the fastest developing cities in the Middle East region. Qatar also has many openings for subject teachers, as English is already pretty widely spoken across the country.

Teaching Opportunities

Peak hiring seasons:

- Training schools - Year-round
- Preschools & kindergartens - December - May
- International schools - December - May
- Universities - December - May

Salary Ranges

- Training schools - N/A
- Preschools & kindergartens - 2,500 - 3,800 USD / mo.
- International schools - 2,500 - 3,800 USD / mo.
- Universities - 2,500 - 3,800 USD / mo.

Popular Cities to Teach in

- Doha
- Ar Rayyan

Getting a Visa

1. Get an employment contract from your school
2. Get any required documents attested
3. Apply for your work visa

Learning the Language

Schools don't expect foreign teachers to speak Arabic when they come to teach in the Qatar.

However, if you're interested in learning the language, enrolling in some classes or using a language learning app is a great way to get started. Understanding and speaking Arabic could help you speak with locals that are not fluent in English, and learning a new language is great for your memory and personal growth!

Top 3 Advantages of Teaching in Qatar

1 Many subject openings

2 Many adult ESL openings

3 High teacher salaries

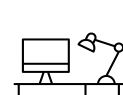

Top 3 Disadvantages of Teaching in Qatar

1 Weather can be very hot

2 Strict exit visa rules

3 Relaxed work culture

Ready to start teaching in Qatar?

Speak with a placement consultant to get the process started or to discuss other countries that might be a good fit for you!

Make a profile on our website

Meet your placement consultant

Begin your job search

Get started!

Jobs

Blog

Teaching Nomad

